KERALA - KALARIPAYATTU

Witness a special performance of the local martial art dance form called 'Kalaripayattu'. Crafted in ancient South India, drawing inspiration from the raw power and sinuous strength of the majestic animal forms - Lion, Tiger, Elephant, Wild Boar, Snake, and Crocodile, Kalaripayattu laid down the combat code of the Cholas, the Cheras and the Pandyas. Shrouded in deep mystery and mists of secrecy Kalaripayattu was traditionally taught by the masters in total isolation, away from prying eyes. It is often credited with being the origin of all the Eastern Martial arts traditions. The performance will be held in an open courtyard of a local temple, and will be part of your sightseeing tour while on the houseboat in the Backwaters of Kerala.
